THOUGHTS FROM OUR RIDERS

“

“Competing on professional indoor bikes was a memorable experience. The Whoosh platform brought the race to life with realistic visuals and competitive pacing, pushing me to give my best. It was not just a test of endurance and speed, but also a celebration of modern technology in sports. Opportunities like these inspire young athletes like me to pursue our passions and explore new dimensions of fitness and sport.”

– Lucas Sidaner, ISC-Abu Dhabi

“I really like how we can cycle virtually without leaving the school, which creates a sense of security. It feels like a video game, yet we’re actually exercising and competing at the same time. I think it’s a fantastic initiative because it combines fitness, technology, and competition. I look forward to joining again next year.”

– Nusrat Shahrin Mausli, SIS-Ruwais

“I was really excited to take part and a little nervous competing in an event like this for the first time. It took a while to get used to mastering the gears and speed control and I look forward to more practice in the future and competing again. It really was a celebration of innovation, community and the simple joy of riding.”

– Aldana AlYassi, ISC-Khalifa City
